GENERAL PROVISIONS—JUDICIARY

Sec. 2. All amounts appropriated in this Act for law books, or expended therefor under authority of this Act, shall be paid out of the General Fund.

Sec. 3. All fees or sums of money paid to any court for which appropriations are made herein or to any of the clerks, officers or employees of any such court for official or certified copies of opinions, carbon copies or documents, shall be deposited at the close of each month in the General Fund of the State Treasury, and none of such fees or sums of money of any kind shall be retained by or paid to said clerks, officers or employees.

Sec. 4. Out of the fund created by the contributions of the Judges as provided in Section 5 of H. B. 33, Acts, Fifty-first Legislature, Regular Session, 1949, known as the Judiciary Retirement Act, there is hereby appropriated such sum or sums of money as may be necessary to pay the accumulated contributions as provided in Section 6 of said H. B. 33.

Sec. 5. (a) Appropriations made in this Act are intended to be, and shall be, construed as being the maximum sums, respectively, which may be used in any way for the purpose or object named in this Act, and obligations shall not be incurred in any case which, when the amount thereof added to expenditures actually made, will exceed such maximum sum; and no surplus shall be diverted from one appropriation to another, except transfers or adjustments may be made as between appropriated amounts for books, equipment, maintenance, and contingent items.

(b) All printing and stationery shall be purchased through the Board of Control and shall be confined to such articles and qualities as selected and contracted for by the Board of Control.

(c) No account against any items of fees or witnesses, county attorneys, justices of peace, sheriffs, and constables, and cost of sheriffs, attorneys, and clerks in felony cases, shall be binding as an obligation against the State of Texas, until such account shall have been examined, audited, and approved by the State Comptroller, and no such account shall be paid by the State Comptroller, and no such account shall be paid by the State Treasurer until the same has been approved by the Comptroller.

(d) It shall be the duty of each of the Appellate Courts and judicial agencies of the State annually, and within sixty (60) days after the close of the State's fiscal year, to make a sworn statement to the Governor and the Board of Control of all amounts received and/or expended by said Court and/or agency. A report from each court shall be filed annually for the calendar year with the Governor, and a copy thereof with the State Board of Control, showing the total number of cases filed in each court during the year, the number of cases transferred to and from such court, the number of cases disposed of with proper divisional classification as to the total number of cases similarly disposed of, that is, by dismissal, final judgment, reversal, affirmance and any other statistical data which may be required by the Governor or State Board of Control.

(e) Annual salaries provided for herein shall be paid in twelve (12) equal monthly installments.

(f) No funds appropriated in this Act shall be used to pay any expense of traveling outside the boundaries of the State of Texas except for returning fugitives on trips authorized by the Governor, and the actual expense of the State's Attorney when it is necessary that he appear before any court in behalf of the State of Texas, or for payment (or reimbursement for payment) of any tip or gratuity whatsoever.

Sec. 6. Each officer, agent, or employee of a court named in this Act and entitled to be paid a salary or other compensation out of any appropriation above made shall be paid by warrant issued in his or her name and specifically showing the amount of salary or sum due upon vouchers showing the services for which the payment is being made with date or dates and place or places of performance of such services.

Traveling expenses paid to all officers and employees under the terms of this bill shall be the same amount and paid under the same conditions as provided for in the General Departmental Bill.

The use of railroad scrip books and other forms of transportation provided at the expense of the State are hereby prohibited, and hereafter all railroad and other transportation shall be paid in cash, and properly listed in expense accounts rendered. Tax exemption certificates shall be used in all cases where the State is exempt from the payment of Government tax under Federal provisions.

The State Comptroller shall be governed accordingly in the issuance of warrants covering payment for railroad scrip books and other forms of transportation.

Money appropriated above for stamps or postage shall be expended only upon warrants made payable to a Postmaster and endorsed by such Postmaster or his deputy or authorized clerk except for incidental purchases of stamps made by District Judges and District Attorneys as provided in Article 6820.

That portion of every appropriation made herein which is unexpended at the close of the fiscal year for which the appropriation is made shall immediately revert to and become a part of the General Revenue Fund. It is hereby provided that the word "unexpended" as used in this Act means "not disbursed nor contracted to be disbursed."

Sec. 7. The Board of Control is hereby authorized to negotiate purchases of commodities and supplies of any kind, or character, whatsoever, needed by any State Agency, with the duly authorized agencies of the Federal Government; provided, however, that such item, or items, so purchased will be obtained at a price not to exceed the prevailing market value thereof, and if there be no market value, then at the real, or intrinsic value; and it is further provided that the State Board of Control is authorized to waive the requirement of bidder's bond and performance bonds otherwise required, in dealing with the duly authorized representative of the Federal Government.

Sec. 8. All officers and employees of this State and its agencies, instrumentalities, political subdivisions and municipalities having control over the payments of any salary or wages to public officers or employees, are hereby authorized and required to comply with the provisions of Public Law No. 68, Seventy-eighth Congress, known as Current Tax Payment Act of 1943. Any expenses involved in complying with provisions of this rider may be paid from the appropriations herein made.

Sec. 9. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are expressly suspended for the period of the biennium for which this appropriation is made.

Sec. 10. If any Section, sentence or clause or part of this Act shall, for any reason, be held to be invalid, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this Act, and it is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature to have passed each sentence, Section, clause, or part thereof, irrespective of the fact that any other sentence, Section, clause, or part thereof may be declared invalid.

Sec. 11. The fact that the above and foregoing is one of the regular appropriation bills to pay salaries, support, maintenance, and operation of the Judiciary and other important agencies of the State for the two (2) fiscal years beginning September 1, 1949, and ending August 31, 1951, and the crowded condition of the calendars of the two Houses of the Legislature, create an emergency and an imperative public necessity, requiring the Constitutional Rule that bills be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and the same is hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Passed the House, March 15, 1949: Yeas 129, Nays 0; House refused to concur in Senate amendments, May 25, 1949, and requested appointment of Conference Committee to consider differences between the two Houses; House adopted Conference Committee Report, June 28, 1949: Yeas 104, Nays 23; passed the Senate, with amendments, May 23, 1949, by a viva voce vote; at request of House Senate appointed Conference Committee to consider differences between the two Houses; Senate adopted Conference Committee Report, June 28, 1949, by a viva voce vote.

Approved July 22, 1949.

Effective September 1, 1949.
